What you will find in this database

This database allows users to search both published and soon-to-be published catalogues raisonnés.

How to Access

From campus or home/off campus

Access the database by clicking the link on the eresources page on the library website.

How to search:

The easiest way to search is by entering the artist you are researching in the Search By Artist search box.

You can also browse listed artists, or search by other criteria such as catalogue author, country of artists' birth or period of artist activity.

The screenshot shows the 'Catalogues Raisonnés' search page. It features a search box for 'Search by Artist' with a 'Go' button. Below it are buttons for browsing by artist name ranges: A-E, F-K, L-Q, and R-Z. There is also a section for 'Or Search by Other Criteria' with a 'Go' button. On the right side, there is a list of links: CR Glossary, Other Resources, FAQ, Users' Guide, Tell Us About Catalogues Raisonnés, and Acknowledgments. The page also includes an 'Introduction' section with text about the database's purpose and a 'Select the Database(s) you want to search:' section with checkboxes for 'Published Catalogues' and 'Catalogues in Preparation'.

Results:

A search on the artist Raphael yields Catalogs in Preparation and Published catalogs.

You can click on each title to be brought to a page with detailed information regarding the catalogues.

The screenshot shows the search results for 'Raphael (1483-1520)'. It lists 'Catalogues in Preparation' and 'Published Catalogues'. Under 'Catalogues in Preparation', there is a link to 'Raphael : A Critical Catalogue of His Paintings. Vols. 4 & 5' with details about the medium covered, the author (Meyer zur Capellen, Jürg), and the sponsor. Under 'Published Catalogues', there are three links to different volumes of the 'Raphael : A Critical Catalogue of His Paintings' series. On the right side, there is a 'Purchase At:' section with logos for Amazon.com, Barnes & Noble, and alibris.

Finding catalogues in local libraries:
