

International Bibliography of Art

What you will find in this database

The definitive resource for scholarly literature on Western art, IBA is the successor to the Bibliography of the History of Art (BHA), and retains the editorial policies which made BHA one of the most trusted and frequently consulted sources in the field.

How to Access

From campus:

Access the database by clicking the link on the eresources page on the library website.

From home/off campus:

Access the database by clicking the link on the eresources page on the library website. You will be prompted to enter your SIA username and password to log on to the proxy server for the first resource you select. As long as your browser session remains open, you will be able to access all other resources without having to log on to the proxy again.

The screenshot shows the top of a web browser displaying an article from Crain's New York Business. The article title is "Picture this: NYC museums are drawing record crowds" by Miriam Kreinin Souccar, dated May 2, 2011. The browser's top navigation bar includes options like "Add to selected items", "Save to My Research", "Email", "Print", "Cite", "Export/Save", "Tags", and "SHARE". A dropdown menu is open under "Export/Save", listing options: "Save as file:" (PDF, RTF, HTML, Text only), "Export to:" (RefWorks, ProCite, EndNote, or Reference Manager, RIS), and "RIS". A dashed arrow points from the "Export/Save" button in the browser to the "RefWorks" option in the dropdown menu.

Create an alert

Alerts are automated email notifications you create to deliver new content as it becomes available in the database. There are two kinds of alerts that you can create:

Search alerts — notify you when new documents that match your search are available.

Click create an alert on the search or search results page.

Publication alerts — notify you when new issues of a selected publication are available.

Click create an alert on the publication search page.

The screenshot shows the ProQuest Arts & Humanities Full Text search results page. The search term "museum" is entered in the search bar. Below the search bar, there are filters for "Full text" and "Peer reviewed". The results count is "328526 Results*" and there are options for "Search within", "Create alert", "Create RSS feed", and "Save search". A dashed arrow points from the "Create alert" button to the "Set up alert" button in the next screenshot.
